

JOB OPPORTUNITY
Jordan's Principle-Child First Case Manager
Lennox Island First Nation – Health

Full Time Term Position (July 2018- March 2019 with possible extension)

The Lennox Island Health Centre's Jordan's Principle Program ensures that First Nations children can access all public services when they need them. Services need to be culturally based and take into full account the historical disadvantage that many First Nations children live with. The government of first contact pays for the service and resolves jurisdictional/payment disputes later.

Qualifications:

Education or related profession with at least 5 years of experience working in the field of health, social or education sectors.

Roles and Responsibilities:

The Jordan's Principle Case Manager will have three main activity areas:

1. Case Management

- Provide a collaborative, client driven system to guide children and their families through a comprehensive array of services.
- Determine services and supports that would benefit the child.
- Support a child and family- centered approach to coordinating and connecting services
- Work towards establishing multi-disciplinary hubs for families when the services they require involves a number of professionals

2. Intake, Assessment and Coordination

- Help families navigate the health and social systems; and determine where and how services can be accessed.
- Help with referrals for assessments to appropriate professional, or provide assessment if within scope of practice
- Build case management capacity through the development of policies, procedures and protocols, related to screening and assessment, service planning, monitoring and evaluation of service plans and staff training.

3. Outreach and Community Engagement

- Reach out to First Nation families and invite them to use the enhanced service coordination
- Enhance awareness in communities of existing services and supports
- Build relationships with communities and collaborate with those providing existing community-based services
- Work to proactively identify children with unmet needs to facilitate early intervention and timely access to services and resources

Qualified candidates seeking to apply are invited to submit a covering letter along with a current resume no later than June 29, 2018 to:
